A CONTRAST—THE NEGRO NORTH AND

[Atlanta Constitution, Sept. 18.]

Pana, Rockport, Carterville! Let the philanthropic friends of the negro in the North take these names down on their memorandum books. They are names that stand out for the Republic in the South, for the actual attitude of the Northern people toward the negro.

Time again we have read in the Northern newspapers burning denunciations of the South whites because they do not invite negroes into their parlors, or because hotel keepers and managers of theaters exercise discrimination in behalf of their patrons. Time and again we have seen petitions that the wrath of heaven might be visited on those who refuse to associate with negroes on the basis of social equality. And when some degenerate brute commits an unprovoked crime, which is speedily and sometimes awfully avenged, the pretended friends of the negro fill the air with their cries, charging that the whole South is given over to barbarism.

It frequently happens that when a Southern negro of standing goes to the North, he is seized upon by the philanthropists and coddled and fawned in a way calculated to convince him that the Northern people are all humanitarians of the first order, and that the North is the negro's paradise.

But now we have the facts, the real situation, the attitude of the Northern people written in blood and marked by the assassination of negroes whose only crime was a desire to earn an honest living, such as honest negroes are earning in the South. The question of the negro's future is not solved by sending him into a white man's parlor, or to a park, as a guest of a white man's dinner. Over and above these social accidents and incidents, there is a crying necessity that the negro should have the privilege, nay, the right of earning his own living by honest labor and according to his gifts, natural or acquired.

We may dispute vehemently over social equality and kindred questions; it is a dispute which means nothing, so far as the future of the negro is concerned; but there can be no dispute over the fact that the negro has a right to earn an honest living for himself and those who depend on him. Sensible men of all parties and persuasions will agree to this. Well, he has this right in the South and is exercising it in a way and with zeal calculated to attract the attention and win the approval of all who have any practical or substantial interest in his future.

But he is denied this right in the North—at Pana, Rockport and Carterville—in terms of blood and by means of assassination; in other parts of the North, in terms of proscription and by means of taxation. It is the all-important question. It is a question that comes home with painful emphasis to the great majority of the human race, especially to those who are born into the puzzling conditions which belong to the end of the nineteenth century.

The white man, who does the greatest wrong, really, where is the greatest crime against the negro committed—in the South, where a few degenerate and morally lepers are wiped out suddenly and unlawfully, or in the North, where negroes, seeking an opportunity to earn their living, are assassinated in the dark, as at Rockport, or ruthlessly murdered in the broad daylight, as at Carterville and Pana? We challenge the Republican editors and the Northern philanthropists to make out a case against the Southern people as evildoers to justice and humanity as the

GOV. TAYLOR ON INGERSOLL.

A Beautiful Production From the Gilded ex-Governor of Tennessee.

The following article by Gov. R. L. Taylor, of Tennessee, is one of the most remarkable productions of his gilded pen:

"I sat in a great theatre at the national capital. It was thronged with youth and beauty, old age and wisdom. I saw a man, the image of his God, stand upon the stage, and I heard him speak. His gestures were perfection of grace his voice was music, and his language was more beautiful than any I had ever heard from mortal lips."

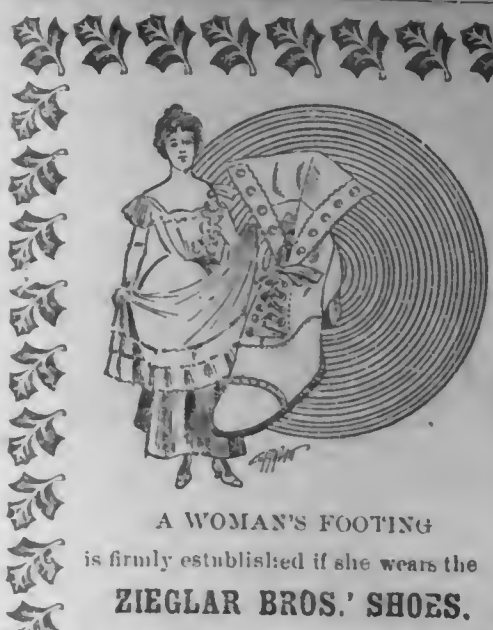

"He painted pictures after picture of the pleasures and joys and sympathies of home. He outshone love and preached the gospel of humanity like an angel. Then I saw him dip his brush in the ink of moral blackness and blot out the beautiful pictures he had painted. I saw him seek to deal death to the soul, and I heard him say: 'I saw him like the serpent of old, worm himself into the paradise of humanity, and he seduced the innocent and subtle devices and sophistry inject his fatal venom, under whose blight its power faded, its music was hushed, its sunshine was darkened, and its soul was left a desert waste, with only the new-made graves of faith and hope.'"

1849—HARRIS GOLDEN WEDDING—1899.

The following article appeared in Monday's Lexington Herald, contributed by some unknown friend, and while it is very readable we feel satisfied it hardly does justice to the grand occasion. We regret we cannot give an original account of the celebration, but as we were "insufficiently urged" this article must suffice:

"The golden wedding on September 20, of Hon. and Mrs. John D. Harris was perhaps the most enjoyable gathering in the history of Madison county. CLOTHING
We are prepared to clothe you with the Lowest-Priced, right-made, absolutely all-wool clothing in America. Rigidly-made, as it is of the famous "Vitalis" Brand, the only Ready-to-Wear Clothing Tailored on a strictly scientific basis in clean, well-ventilated workrooms. Perfect fitting and wear-resisting, because the inside, the "Vitalis," the very life of the garment is carefully making represents the "essence" of time and thought, and a decided contrast to the inferior seen in ordinary Ready-to-Wear clothing. The Fabrics we show are of the very newest designs that will be seen this season. Many confined exclusively to us, in the face of the above facts.

The most extraordinary feature combining our great offerings is, that we can and do sell our clothing at less money than elsewhere.

How can we afford to sell such high-grade clothing for less money than elsewhere? Our answer is pure and simple: Ours is a modern store, constructed strictly on progressive plans, our clothing is sold on the smallest margin of profit, depending on a large volume of business. The more clothing we sell, the greater our purchasing power, the lower our prices, that's the story in a nutshell.

Rev. Sweeney's Speech.

Elder Zach Sweeney, Republican candidate for Auditor and Hon. F. B. Bannan spoke at the court house on Monday. The room will hold 600 people in a push, but on this occasion, as there was a greater attraction outside, Mr. Goebel's house was not only filled but a Republican and a Democrat who were there, tell us the house was packed over 200 persons present, half of whom were negroes. Granted there were 300 present, Sweeney's crowd was 16 to 1 larger, as 5,000 people were on the feet listening to him. Mr. Sweeney is rated as a fine stump, and we sincerely regret we could not have heard his speech. The Louisville Democrat lied so badly about Goebel's crowd that we cannot trust to its report for information. Mr. Sweeney should come when there's no one to divide the crowd.

A Paper at Point Lick.

It was reported on the streets here Monday, that a newspaper was to be established at Point Lick, this county. If the grating is as short in that end of the county as it is here, the editor will find the picking pretty dry. It's the easiest thing in the world to start a paper, and anyone can get out the first few issues, but when the steep hills of time are encountered, those who start to fill the "long felt want" will find that it's not gold that glitters, especially in the newspaper field.—Lancaster Record.

A Brilliant Young Attorney.

Mr. Robert E. Roberts, a native of Texas, has moved to this city and has opened a law office in the Moberly building. Mr. Roberts is no stranger here, having been graduated from Central University in '89 and taught there for several years. He was subsequently graduated from the law department of the celebrated University of Mississippi, and recently taught the language in the Jackson College Institute. He has been, however, a close student, and practitioner, and his new intelligence, education and experience equip him admirably for his profession. His true worth is concealed from casual observation by his modesty, but having fifteen years knowledge of the man, we commend him heartily to the confidence of this people.

A Mainly Way to Hit 'Em on the Head.

This letter was sent to Louisville yesterday by a Brown Democrat who heard Mr. Goebel's speech here on Monday.

Richmond, Ky., Oct. 3, 1899.

Editor Dispatch, Louisville, Ky.

Sir:—Some months since I ordered your paper through the CLIMAX at Richmond, Ky., and have been following blindly the policy of the paper as to the regular nominees of the Democratic party until within the past month. I have come to the conclusion that you are wilfully and corruptly trying to deceive and mislead the Democracy of the State and I desire to withdraw my patronage, (though humble it may be) from its support. I am not willing that it come to my address and hope you will discontinue it. I have paid for it until March 1900 but you are welcome to the advance payment.

Respectfully,
H. K. MELLON,

To Reside in Louisville.

Mr. John H. Chandler left on Friday for Louisville where he will practice law in partnership with Mr. Van Norman, a recent distinguished graduate of Central University and law expert.

Their office is 327 1/2 street, opposite court square, one of the best localities in Louisville.

In severing his connection with this city, where he resided for about eight years, Mr. Chandler has heard many expressions of regret and respect and of sincere regret at his departure. Although a young man he has made himself felt for good in all the activities of life, and in all he has discharged his part with honor to himself and credit to his intelligence and character. As a student, as a professor, in the study and practice of the law, in his church, in business, in literary clubs and elsewhere he has conducted himself in a way to win the plaudits of those who honor talented, self-made, self-respecting gentlemen. And the well wishes of all these friends accompany Mr. Chandler to his new home, satisfied that they will not wait long for tidings of a repetition of the successes he achieved here.

Will Bank Stock be Assessed?

Will the City Assessor attempt to assess the State Bank as assessed by the individual holders thereof for municipal purposes this year? The Supreme Court recently held that Louisville and other cities in Kentucky could not assess national banks the same as the state banks are assessed. In view of the mixed condition of affairs the City and practicality of the law, the City Assessor of Louisville has advised the assessor that he can compel individual holders to pay, and addressed the following letter to the president of the national banks of Louisville:

Office of the City Assessor, Louisville, Ky., Sept. 23.—Dear Sir: Under the laws and ordinances governing the taxation of banks in this city I am required to assess the stock in national banks to the individual holders thereof. For the purpose of making a uniform assessment of this property it is necessary for me to obtain a list of the shareholders and the number of shares of stock held by each of them from your bank from you. I desire to obtain such a list as soon as convenient, and will send an Assessor to acquire same from you at any time you may specify between now and October 15, or I would be glad if you would enclose a copy of same at your earliest convenience.

Very truly yours,
D. T. MURPHY, Assessor.

A Slick Young Fellow Creaks.

For sometime past, Luther Creakmore, 19 year old son of N. B. Creakmore of the Berea neighborhood, has been systematically obtaining money in small sums from the Farmers' National Bank of this city, by presenting checks drawn in the name of D. G. Bales and Charles Evans, farmers of the Berea locality, who had money on deposit in the bank.

On Thursday last the young man called for a much larger sum than usual and the bank officers became suspicious and upon interrogating Creakmore they found him more or less tangled up in his replies to their questions. The janitor was sent for a policeman and Creakmore was detained through the diplomacy of the cashier until the officer arrived, when, so to speak, the whole "bottom dropped out" of Creakmore's slick scheme and he was taken to jail. The total amount of the checks was only about $170, of which the last check drawn but not cashed, was $50. Creakmore says he was hired by another party to get the money on the checks. It is so extremely difficult to obtain any information on the subject that further particulars are not presented.

Don't forget this date of this Grand Fur Opening, October 9th and 10th, at the Busy Bee Cash Store.

Is the L. & N. Really Guilty?

The Democrats, of Ford, all of whom devoted to attack the Goebel-Blackburn speaking here September 30, applied to the L. & N. for a special train to bring them here so they would lose only half a day from their work, and the Railroad Company flatly refused to consider the matter, though the Ford people were willing to pay well for the train and to have the day's journey convention here, it is well known that the L. & N. furnished a special train free of charge for the Hardin voters to come from Ford. Doesn't that look like the L. & N. is in politics some?—Winchester Democrat.

A Beautiful Memorial.

A beautiful memorial has been erected to the memory of the late Col. James Blythe, which is certainly a very handsome as well as substantial specimen of monument architecture. It is on the Shropshire style in shape and classical in every detail of the design, even the markers all match in good taste giving a very pleasing and symmetrical appearance to the whole lot. The monument is made from a select quality of extra white and one of the best New England granite and is about 8 feet long at base. It was designed and executed by J. S. Clark & Co., the well-known monument architects and dealers of Louisville, Ky., who have works also in Vermont and have erected many of the largest and finest monuments in the State.

Cutting at Kingston.

A serious cutting affray occurred at Kingston on Friday night, and as a result Ed Winkler will probably die. As far as we can learn the difficulty originated with the refusal of Miss Winkler to laundry White's shirt, certain remarks, it is alleged, that were disparaging of White being uttered by Winkler and circulated in the neighborhood. It was only a trifle, but White felt aggrieved and it is said, went to Winkler's house on Friday night and called him out. When he came out of his gate, so we hear, Whites stabbed him in the abdomen with a dirk. The wounded man is in a precarious condition, one of his physicians being of the belief that he cannot recover.

White remained in the vicinity for an hour and was not moved, afterwards he was taken to a hotel at large. Both parties are white.

LATER—Winkler died Monday.

Important Legal Question About Voting.

Quite a nice legal point was raised here yesterday in regard to the legality of a vote. There is a man in the county whose twenty first birthday is on the 8th of November. The election is on the 7th. The question is, will he be entitled to a vote? The opinion prevails among the attorneys to whom the matter has been referred that he should be allowed to vote. They say the courts have so decided the question. It is claimed that a person whose birthday is on the 8th completes the year on the 7th.—Anderson News.

Big Democratic Club Organized.

Pursuant to a call in last week's CLIMAX the Democratic Club of Richmond assembled at the court house on Thursday night last, and an organization of the Richmond Democratic Club was effected. It was a miserable dreary, drizzling night and many on that night were compelled to remain indoors. Others who had not heard of the proposed meeting, expressed regret at being absent, and new names have been added to the roll. Hon. R. Harris Crooke was nominated by Judge Rice for President, the former having been chiefly instrumental in the call and organization of the Club. Gov. McCracken was nominated by J. S. Collins for Vice President, and H. H. Colyer named Clarence E. Woods and R. Lee Davis for Secretaries. The committee on Constitution and By-laws was appointed: Hon. W. B. Smith, Chairman, Gov. McCracken, W. R. Lecher, H. C. Rice and C. E. Woods. All the foregoing nominations were adopted unanimously, after which the following were appointed to solicit membership in the Club, R. E. Roberts for President, J. H. Kennedy, Wm. Myers, and Messrs. Allan, O'Neil, Berry, Feeny and Dudley. Unless otherwise determined, the Club will meet every Thursday night at the court house. Stirring addresses were made by Hons. J. H. McCracken, W. B. Smith, R. H. Crooke, and the utmost enthusiasm manifested. The Club's career began under auspicious circumstances and will be a great power for good in the campaign, in our county, legislative and State reports. Messrs. Smith and McCracken asked Mr. Goebel to remain over and address the Club on Monday night, in order that all those, especially our busy merchants, might have an opportunity to hear him.

It is more difficult to command than to obey.

On the 10th of December, 1897, Rev. S. A. Donahoe, pastor M. E. Church, South, Ft. Pleasant, W. Va., contracted a severe cold which was attended by the beginning by violent coughing. He says: "After resorting to a number of so-called 'specifics' usually kept in the house, to no purpose, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which acted like a charm. I most cheerfully recommend it to the public." For sale by Perry & Thomas.

INDUCEMENTS EXTRAORDINARY

AT THE

Busy Bee Cash Store,

The Busiest Store in Richmond.

The appended items are intended only to show how reasonable are our prices and how great are the inducements offered to early fall purchasers; also as a drawing card for the purpose of giving you some idea of the magnitude of our fall stock. The beauty of our Dress Fabrics, which show the inspirations of the Loom Artists of France, England, Germany, Switzerland and America.

Never before have the good people of Madison and adjoining counties had such an enormous stock of goods to select their fall purchases from as we are now showing. Shelves, counters, ledges and even the very floors, upstairs and downstairs, are creaking and groaning under the weight of the enormous stacks of goods that are piled upon them.

Not a single item in this great store, in this enormous stock of goods, nor in this great syndicate of three the largest stores in Central Kentucky will be shown to a customer this fall, that is not in itself a GENUINE BARGAIN.

DRESS GOODS.

We are very cautious about our Dress Materials; they must be of the most exclusive kinds in the early weeks of the season, and the lower priced fabrics reflect true elegance, which is the harmony of good taste.

We are offering a line of beautiful all-wool mixtures, double width and pretty and stylish for 14c yd., worth 20c. We are showing the handsomest line of Crepons and the market this season. Prices from 20c per yd. up; five imported weaves that go out freely at $2.49 per yd.

We are showing a complete line of Venetians, Broadcloths and all weaves adapted to tailor-made suitings. Our prices quoted on these lines will be much lower than you can expect them to be.

Our extraordinary line of plaids will enable you to make a quick selection and get the latest bargains out.

BOOTS AND SHOES.

The enormous stock of Boots and Shoes that crowd our shelves and ledges has forced us to use our knife in this department and we have cut to the heart in every line. We never had a more complete stock of Children's School Shoes, Ladies' Fine Shoes, Ladies' Work Shoes, Men's Fine Shoes, Men's and Boys' Boots and everything to be found in a first-class shoe store, and prices are so low that we are moving them out in bags, carts and wagons. Don't wait to get your shoes, come now. We are agents for the "Regina" Shoe, it is made on all the new style lasts and it is the best $3.00 shoe for ladies in the market. Ask to see a pair of our Regina Shoes.

CLOAKS AND WRAPS.

We have a large stock of cloaks and wraps devoted to our Cloth and Wrap Department. All the Eastern and Western Cities have been culled by our buyers and not a stone has been left unturned to make the line of the season. All the new Jackets, Golf Capes, Children's Jackets, etc., that are in favor this season we are showing and our prices suit every body. You can buy a handsome Silk Lined Jacket or Cape from us at the same price a cheap one would cost you elsewhere. Don't fail to visit our Cloth Department, look through it, see many new things whether you want to buy or not. Polite salesmen and salesladies will wait on you.

All Domestic Goods, are being wrapped up with the margin of profit entirely lost sight of. You can save money on each and every item purchased in this Department.
